

ASHLEY CABALLERO-DALTREY JOINS JSH'S APPELLATE GROUP

September 15, 2021 | News, Press Releases

Jones, Skelton & Hochuli is pleased to welcome associate attorney Ashley Caballero-Daltrey to its Appellate Group, where she will represent clients in federal and state appellate matters and dispositive motions.

Before joining JSH, Ashley worked as a law clerk for Vice Chief Justice Ann Scott Timmer of the Arizona Supreme Court. There she gained extensive experience researching and drafting memos in torts, civil procedure, government claims, contracts, and land use.

Ashley earned her law degree, summa cum laude, from the University of Arizona's James E. Rogers College of Law. During law school, she worked as a law clerk in the Civil Division of the Pima County Attorney's Office and in the Riverside City Attorney's Office in California. She also volunteered her time as President and 1L Representative for Pride Law, as a member of the College's Diversity Committee, and as the lead coordinator for the Pride Law Name & Gender Marker Change Clinic.

Ashley graduated summa cum laude from the University of Redlands in California with a B.A. in French and international relations. Her thesis, "Une Marche Vers Le Bien" Les Misérables et L'idée du Progrès, earned her a French Fellowship.
