

JSH CONGRATULATES ASSOCIATE ATTORNEY STEPHANIE BALDWIN ON ADMITTANCE TO ARIZONA STATE BAR

August 19, 2021 | News, Press Releases

Jones, Skelton & Hochuli is pleased to announce associate attorney Stephanie Baldwin has been admitted to practice law in Arizona. She works in two of the firm's trial groups, General & Auto Liability Group and Governmental Liability and Employment Law.

Stephanie focuses her practice in the areas of auto liability, commercial litigation, product liability, employment litigation, insurance coverage, and catastrophic personal injury defense. With more than 15 years of professional experience in the areas of employment law, human resources, and education, her unique background provides her with a strong understanding of the interplay between business and law.

Stephanie worked as a summer law clerk at JSH in 2020, and she graduated in May from the University of Arizona's James E. Rogers College of Law. She worked as a summer law clerk at JSH in 2020, summer and fall legal intern at the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, and legal extern with an international labor and employment litigation law firm. Before pursuing her law degree, Stephanie focused her career in human resource management and education. She earned additional professional certifications in leadership and training from the Disney Institute, certification in Nonprofit Management from ASU's Lodestar Center, and maintains credentials as a certified HR professional as both a Professional in Human Resources Management (PHR), and a Society of Human Resources Management Certified Professional (SHRM-CP).