

JONES, SKELTON & HOCHULI WELCOMES ASSOCIATE ATTORNEY, GROWING TRUCKING & TRANSPORTATION AND HEALTH CARE DEFENSE GROUPS

December 15, 2020 | News, Press Releases

Jones, Skelton & Hochuli welcomes associate attorney Camilla B. Porter.

Camilla Porter

brings over 14 years of experience defending large hospital networks in medical negligence and general liability actions. She previously worked at other insurance defense and medical malpractice defense firms, gaining experience in litigation strategy, mediation and settlement negotiations. In addition, she has extensive experience representing physicians and other health care professionals before the Arizona Medical Board, Arizona State Board of Nursing and Arizona State Board of Pharmacy. Before pursuing her law degree, Camilla worked for five years as an emergency room nurse. Camilla maintains her R.N. license today and utilizes her practical experience to best defend healthcare providers against medical malpractice claims. Camilla's commercial litigation experience includes the defense of insurance agencies, higher education institutions, manufacturers, pharmaceutical companies, and other businesses. She is the Founder of Kids for Kindness, a nonprofit organization that encourages young children to engage in community service. Camilla earned her law degree, cum laude, from the University of Arizona James E. Rogers College of Law in 2006 and her nursing degree, magna cum laude, from the Arizona State University College of Nursing in 2002.
