

JSH WELCOMES TWO NEW ASSOCIATES TO THE PHOENIX OFFICE

June 1, 2023 | News, Press Releases

Jones, Skelton & Hochuli, P.L.C. is pleased to announce the addition of two associate attorneys to our Phoenix office.

Evan Russell joins JSH as a new associate in the General Liability Trial Group, where his work consists of representing clients in personal injury and wrongful death, premises liability, and other matters. Evan began his law school journey at Suffolk University and graduated from the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law at ASU. While in law school he was an extern for the Maricopa County Attorney's Office, and a 2022 summer associate with JSH. Evan also clerked for Generation Justice, researching federal and state child welfare laws to inform legislative policy change recommendations, as well as working for multiple immigration law firms. He was named to the Dean's list and earned his B.S. in Business and Finance from the University of Connecticut, and spent a semester abroad in Barcelona.

Hunter Young joins JSH's Transportation Trial Group, where he will be representing insurers and commercial trucking companies in transportation, product liability, and personal injury and wrongful death matters. Hunter began his law school journey at the University of Oregon, and received his J.D. from the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law at ASU, where he was the Article Editor for the Arizona State Sports and Entertainment Law Journal (SELJ). During law school he served as an intern with the ADA County Prosecutor's Office in Boise, Idaho, as well as with a Phoenix personal injury firm and the ASU Office of General Counsel.
