PATRICK GORMAN TO CO-PRESENT AT PLRB 2018 WESTERN REGIONAL ADJUSTERS CONFERENCE

June 20, 2018 | Events, News

Patrick Gorman will be co-presenting, "The Role of Biomechanics in Accident Recon & Litigation." The PLRB Western Regional Adjusters Conference provides high-quality claims training and education in an interactive educational setting. Adjusters are exposed to property and casualty claim insurance topics that provide current information on critical claims issues while earning up to 12 hours of adjuster continuing education credit in select states.

PLRB's purpose is to offer their members products and services that they can provide more efficiently or economically than they can generate for themselves. Any insurance company or underwriting organization licensed to do property or casualty business in the United States can become a subscriber member of PLRB.

Patrick Gorman concentrates his practice in the areas of bad faith and extra-contractual liability, insurance coverage, professional liability and other general civil litigation matters. In his practice, he represents large insurers in bad faith and breach of contract claims, often with allegations of punitive damages, through all phases of litigation in state and federal court. Patrick also represents attorneys, insurance brokers, and accountants in professional malpractice claims.
